When all is said and done,
what will we remember from our high school years?

...the endless knowledge from our teachers,
the mindless gossip with our friends,
the pep talks with our coaches,
the inspiration that is all around us...

Let 2012 be a year of more than just whispers of greatness.

Let 2012 be a year
truly quoted.

Dear members of the Class of 2012:

Four short years ago you began your journey here at Shrewsbury High School. I have had the distinct pleasure of watching you grow and develop into the personification of our mission statement: capable, caring, active contributors to the world in which you live. During your time here, you have experienced great joys and genuine sorrows through your friendships, co-curricular activities, and in the classroom. Through all of these challenges, you persevered and continued to move forward. These experiences will forever be with you and have undoubtedly contributed to who you are as an individual today, and what you will become as you enter the next phase of your life.

As Principal, I am most proud of the leadership that you have exhibited and the example you have set for the rest of our school and community. You have consistently demonstrated respect, responsibility, and dedication to community service, and these three areas will continue as part of the legacy of your class. Collectively you have accomplished a great number of goals and have set very high expectations for future senior classes.

As you move into the next phase of your life, you need to remember that anything of value does not come easily; it takes hard work, commitment and resilience in facing obstacles in order to succeed. I am confident that Shrewsbury High School has prepared you for life beyond our walls and community. I wish you all the best in your future endeavors, and remember to stay true to yourself and let your values and work ethic serve as your compass in life.

Respectfully,

Todd H. Bazydlo

"And when I remember it, I think of it as dancing. Dancing with eyes half closed because to open them would break the spell. Dancing as if the language had surrendered to movement, as if this ritual was now the way to speak....

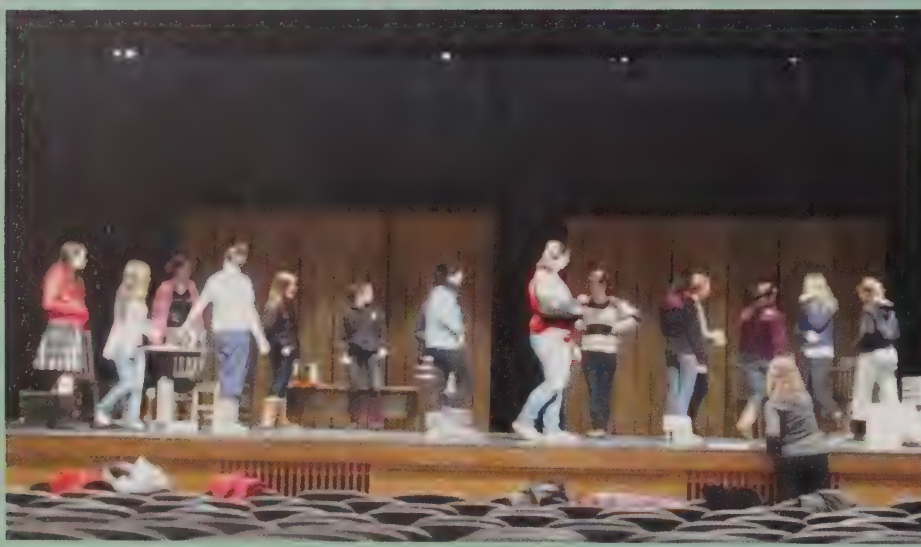

...Dancing as if the very heart of life and all its hopes might be found in those silent and hypnotic movements. Dancing as if language no longer existed because words were no longer necessary."

Nora... Our Wish for You

I hope the days come easy and the moments pass slow
And each road leads you where you want to go
And if you're faced with the choice and you have to choose
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you

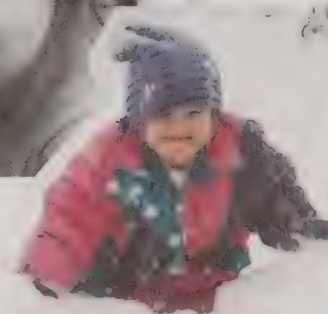

And if one door opens to another door closed
I hope you keep on walkin' til you find the window
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile
But more than anything, more than anything

My wish for you
Is that this life becomes all that you want it to Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold

And while you're out there gettin' where you're gettin' to
I hope you know somebody loves you
And wants the same things too

I hope you never look back but you never forget
All the ones who love you and the place you left
I hope you always forgive and you never regret
And you help somebody every chance you get

(Excerpted from My Wish by Rascal Flatts)

From when you were a young toddler, you charmed us all with your raspy voice and blinking for pretty eyes. Now today as you are standing tall with confidence and a willingness to take on whatever the world has in store for you. I will always remember the day I took the special picture on the night you enjoyed your last bottle with little booties on and we just knew that someday soon you would out grow these things and grow into the beautiful girl you are today. Your early desire for independence and strong determination will give you the much needed tools to overcome any obstacle that comes in your path. We take great pride in having you as our daughter and love you for who you are and who you will become. You have great strength of character that has proven to be true during good times and bad. "My Little Cowboy"

To "the boy"- now that you are graduating from High School, suppose we should call you "the man". You've come a long way since those days in preschool when you barely spoke a word. With the confidence you gained from excelling in sports at a young age, you came out of your shell and along the way gained some lifelong friends. Your true self emerged when Mom cautioned you about being the class clown, and you informed her, "hey, its on my resume!" As Grandma and Grandpa used to say, "he's a funny little guy". We have watched you grow into a wonderful young man with a big heart. You have always been a loving little brother to your sister Kelly and she loves you dearly. With your experience as co-CEO of COBIGTIME1 trick shots, we're sure that you will find the passion within yourself to do great things. We wish you all of the wonderful things that life has to offer and know that we will always be there for you.

Miss Jaclyn,
It's hard to believe that it's the end of your high school years and that you'll be starting a new chapter of your life. It seems like just yesterday that I was taking our traditional first day of school photos, when you cut your own hair that very morning of first grade. With those big blue eyes, freckles, and angelic face, only you could pull off a bad hair day. There is no doubt in my mind that with your beauty, brains, and independent nature, you will, for sure, accomplish any dream you set out to achieve. Always remember how much your family loves and supports you. We wish you nothing but success, happiness, and good health always. Love,
Dad, Mom, Justin, Courtney, Kelly & Conor
